Chagrin Arts Presents an Intimate Performance with Musicians from the Cleveland Orchestra on March 2

CHAGRIN FALLS, OHIO – Chagrin Arts kicks off its 2018 Performing Arts Series “The Classics” on March 2 with an intimate performance by Factory Seconds Brass Trio, a group featuring three distinguished musicians from the Cleveland Orchestra. The program will begin at 7:30 PM on Friday, March 2 at the Chagrin Falls United Methodist Church, located at 20 S. Franklin St., Chagrin Falls, Ohio. The 2018 Performing Arts Series is presented in partnership with Sapphire Creek Winery & Gardens.

Featuring Cleveland Orchestra members Jack Sutte (trumpet), Jesse McCormick (horn) and Richard Stout (trombone), Factory Seconds Brass Trio will present music from Belgium and France, including chansons from Arcadelt and Poulenc’s famous Sonata for brass trio.

All Chagrin Arts performances allow for an intimate, up-close experience with master musicians. Be a part of the music and the personal connections of those who are performing the great works of the past.

Tickets range from $5-$32 and may be purchased by phone at (440)247-9700 or online at ChagrinArts.org. Additionally, group discounts will be available for parties of 10 or more; call (440) 247-9700 for details.

These songs, and others that will be heard during the 2018 Performing Arts Series, are considered classics -- they have withstood the test of time and have become of great significance, connecting one to the past, as well as to one another. Join Chagrin Arts as we explore the “classic connection” and reflect on the memories that make these songs part of our own musical legacy.

To explore these connections, Chagrin Arts is asking patrons to share their memories that relate to each specific program (i.e. Where did you hear your first chamber music concert? What do you enjoy most about classical music?) The memories will be compiled into a book to be shared at future events. To share a memory, please email Chagrin Arts at info@chagrinarts.org.
