Racial inequity to be discussed tomorrow, June 12, at Chautauqua-in-Chagrin™ program

CHAGRIN FALLS, OHIO – Chagrin Arts kicks off its 2018 Chautauqua-in-Chagrin™ Lecture Series tomorrow, Tuesday, June 12, with “Understanding Racial Inequity,” a presentation led by the Racial Equity Institute of Greensboro, North Carolina. The program is presented in partnership with Chagrin Falls Exempted Village Schools, and will take place from 7:00 – 8:30 PM at the Chagrin Falls United Methodist Church, located at 20 S. Franklin, St., Chagrin Falls, Ohio. Tickets are $20-$25 for adults and $5 for students age 25 and younger. Tickets may be purchased by phone at (440) 247-9700 or online at ChagrinArts.org

The focus of this year’s Chautauqua-in-Chagrin™ Series is “Let’s Talk: Exploring Moral and Ethical Issues Surrounding Race, Medicine, Cybersecurity and Free Speech.” For the June 12 program, Racial Equity Institute organizers will use stories and data to present a perspective that racism is fundamentally structural in nature. By examining characteristics of modern-day racial inequity, the presentation focuses on the nature and impact of systemic racism. The program will conclude with an open Q&A period from the audience.

“The topics of racial equity, acceptance, and social justice are critically important for the development of our future leaders,” said Robert Hunt, Chagrin Falls Schools Superintendent. “This is an excellent opportunity to support the ongoing conversations that families are having around these topics.”

Additionally, the Chagrin Falls Library will host its Young Explorers Program at the Chagrin Falls Library at 100 E. Orange St., Chagrin Falls, Ohio. The June 12 program focuses on “Recreation,” one of the four pillars of the Chautauqua Movement and is open to children in Kindergarten through 5th grade. The program will begin at 4:00 PM at the library with an afternoon of fun and fitness with Chagrin Falls Yoga. Participants should wear comfortable clothing. The Young Explorers Program is free of charge but registration is required by calling (440) 247-3556.

ABOUT THE RACIAL EQUITY INSTITUTE

Established in 2007, The Racial Equity Institute (REI) is an alliance of trainers and organizers that is committed to bringing awareness and analysis to the root causes of disparities and disproportionality in order to create racially equitable systems. Even 50 years after significant civil rights gains, the impact of race continues to shape the outcomes of all institutions. REI trainers and organizers help individuals and organizations develop tools and processes to challenge patterns of institutional power and to grow institutional equity.

REI's work is largely aligned with that of similar anti-racist training programs, with which they collaborate. Their aim is to contribute to a larger movement comprised of many actors formulating actions designed to advance justice and equity. Their approach builds on the work of the larger anti-racist movement and includes refinements and innovations based on our senior trainers' many years of experience in organizing projects, trainings, and consultations across the United States.

REI's approach is designed to help participants understand that racism has institutional, systemic, and cultural manifestations that do not require the intention of individuals. They see institutionalized racism as the root cause of disparate social and economic outcomes and believe that effective interventions must address the social systems themselves.
